Description

Offered for sale in a quiet residential location of Stornoway is this cosy semi-detached three bed roomed cottage. The property is presented to the market in excellent decorative order throughout and provides comfortable living accommodation over two floors. Benefitting from UPVC double glazing and gas fired central heating. Set within easily maintained mature garden grounds lined with bushes and shrubs the property also benefits from a large off road parking space and garage shell which would allow a potential buyer flexibility as to develop the current structure or remove to benefit from additional space. Located within a few minutes walk of the town centre, schools and the shoreline of Sandwick providing an ideal location for enjoying relaxing walks. From the upper floor the property enjoys a view across the entrance of Stornoway harbour and onwards to the Arnish moor. This property is an ideal family home, excellent buy to let investment or first time buy.
